

A large, colorful molecular structure graphic is positioned on the left side of the image. It features a central cluster of spheres in various colors (blue, green, red, orange, yellow, pink, white) connected by thin white lines, with several smaller spheres scattered around. The entire graphic is set against a light blue background that features a faint silhouette of a human head in profile, facing right.

FR M
MOLECULE TO PATIENT

ASCPT 2019
ANNUAL MEETING

The 2019 Rawls-Palmer Progress in Medicine Award

J. Steven Leeder, BSc. (Pharm.), Pharm.D., Ph.D.

Wiarion Baby Is Winner, Gets Many Contest Prizes

James Steven Leeder, winner of the First Baby of 1957 Contest of The Sun-Times, will receive a shower of gifts donated by Owen Sound merchants.

James Steven, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. V. Leeder of Wiarion, was born at 12.56 a.m. January 1, in the Bruce Peninsula and District Memorial Hospital, Wiarion. The baby has blue eyes, and weighs seven pounds, one and a half ounces at birth.

The 1957 winner will receive, among the many gifts, a silver teapot and spoon set, a knitted baby blanket set, a year's subscription to the Owen Sound Sun-Times, an all-wool baby blanket, a silver baby mug, felt booties and baby's first shoes.

The following merchants are donating the prizes; Classic Theatre, Walker's Stores, Grafton and Company, Sun-Times, North Grey Cheese Co-op, Hazel Hill Wool Shop, Parker and Company, Scarrow's Shoe Store, Dutch Inn, Wilkinson's Shoe Store, Cross Country Cut Rate, Scopis Restaurant, Rennie Garen Jewellers, Warrilow's Dry Goods, McKay Brothers, Farmer's Credit Jewellers, Camp Grainger Pharmacy, and The Son's Furniture Store.

FROM MOLECULE TO PATIENT

FROM MOLECULE TO PATIENT

FROM MOLECULE TO PATIENT

FROM MOLECULE TO PATIENT

J. Steven Leeder, PharmD, PhD

Clinical Pharmacology

FR
MOLECULE_{TO} PATIENT

