

Meet the Network and Community Leadership
Network: Translational & Precision Medicine (TPM)
Community: Oncology (ONC)

Community Vice Chair:
Shruti Agrawal, PhD
Bristol-Myers Squibb

Dr. Shruti Agrawal is a Director of Clinical Pharmacology and Pharmacometrics at Bristol-Myers Squibb in USA. Dr. Agrawal has extensive experience in immuno-oncology and oncology area with the focus on clinical pharmacology & pharmacometrics strategies for small molecules and biologics. At Bristol-Myers Squibb, she has served as clinical pharmacology lead for several early and late stage assets in oncology including nivolumab, ipilimumab, dasatinib and combinations. Her area of research interest including clinical pharmacology to explain implications of safety and efficacy and there by optimizing dosing options for cancer immunotherapy. Dr. Agrawal received her PhD from National Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research, India. Dr. Agrawal is a member of American Society for Clinical Pharmacology and Therapeutics (ASCPT). She has over 100 peer reviewed scientific presentations and publications.